Title of Work: Afropean Affair
Composer: Oscar Perez
Date completed: September 2009
Work Length: 35 minutes

Work Description:

Afropean Affair is a three-part suite that explores the themes of present, past and future. The first movement, Cosas Lindas que Viven Ahora (Beautiful Things Living Today), has a very Cuban folkloric influence. The second section, Last Season's Sorrow, incorporates classical elements. A New Day Emerging, the concluding movement, gives us a glimpse as to where I believe Latin Jazz is going musically.
